

Thursa Crittenden

Thursa Crittenden is a retired broadcast television, community relations and public affairs veteran. Over the course of her 39 year career, she had an excellent track record for producing cutting edge public affairs television programs and documentaries and for identifying opportunities and implementing highly visible television and community campaigns, projects and initiatives. She is a respected leader with extensive community affiliations and has served as an Outreach Coordinator for Minority Health Issues, Manager for Community Relations and Programming, Manager for Broadcast Services, Media Consultant and Freelance Television Producer, Director of the Office of Communications, District of Columbia, and Vice President for Public Affairs. Currently Ms. Crittenden serves as the Coordinator for the Hampton University Executive Leadership Summit.

Ms. Crittenden was appointed to the Virginia State University Board of Visitors in July of 2014.