Eligibility Requirements:

Students must be currently enrolled and in good academic standing (not on academic warning, probation, suspension, or expulsion) to be eligible to participate in a study abroad program. Students in faculty-led group programs must meet the minimum GPA established by the faculty leader. Any student who has applied and/or been accepted will automatically become ineligible if placed on any type of probation or suspension before departure.

Disability Accommodation Statement:

Students with documented disabilities who may need accommodation during their study abroad experience should discuss these needs with the program coordinator at the time of application. VSU is committed to maximizing the educational potential of each student with a disability and operates in accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, under which no person with a disability will, on the basis of that disability, be denied full and equal access for participation in programs, services, and activities. For additional assistance, students should contact the Student Accessibility Office, University Counseling Center, P.O. Box 9030, Room 101 Memorial Hall, Virginia State University. Phone: (804) 524-5061. TTY: (804) 524-5838.
