

Dr. Valerie K. Brown currently serves as the Executive Pastor of Mount Lebanon Global Fellowship of Churches headquartered in Chesapeake, Va., where she oversees the management and operations of the church's four satellite locations (Signet Family Life Center, Signet Bowling Center, Summit Counseling and Wellness Center and Key's Resource Center and Café). Brown's previous work experience includes teaching positions at Norfolk State University and at Virginia Union University in the Samuel D. Proctor School of Theology. Her prior experience in the corporate sector includes executive vice president/chief financial officer for K.W. Brown International Ministries, Inc.; executive vice president/chief financial officer for The Elder's House, Inc.; founder, owner, and president of a non-profit and tax preparation/consulting firm (Chesapeake, Va.), and chief financial officer/controller at the Cardinal Savings and Loan (Richmond, Va.). Brown has served on several boards including the Advisory Board for SunTrust Bank, and she has received numerous awards and certifications. She earned the Doctor of Management from the Weatherhead School of Business, Case Western Reserve University (Cleveland, Ohio) and a bachelor's degree in accounting from Virginia State University. Brown was appointed to the Board of Visitors in July 2018.