

HOMEFRONT READJUSTMENT for the ARMED FORCES FACT SHEET

This certificate program is designed for undergraduate students and professionals in interdisciplinary fields who wish to develop specific knowledge of military culture and communities.

PROGRAM DESIGN

- Students will acquire the skills to interact in community settings where the needs of active duty service members, veterans and their families are met.
- Courses in the program focus on, but are not limited to, understanding the roles of human service workers in addressing existing and potential challenges, stigmas, mental health concerns, and stressful family dynamics that are often confronted by the military and veteran community.
- The program is fully online, which makes it conveniently accessible anywhere, anytime.

CORE COMPETENCIES

Students will identify and facilitate access to essential services and resources, social supports, case management, care coordination, and advocacy. Students who complete the certificate program will possess critical competencies and skills to

- Engage, assess, intervene with members of the military service members, veterans and their families
- Coordinate military-competent services, enhance military programming for their agencies and provide opportunities to access new employment opportunities with military service members or veterans
- Advocate for social, economic, and environmental justice, well-being, and appropriate service delivery for military service members, veterans and their families
