

Elimination of CWS Deferment Agreement FAQs

QUESTION	ANSWER
Q1: What does this letter mean?	A1: This letter means you no longer have a deferment agreement with VSU.
Q2: Does this mean I now have a balance on my student account?	A2: No. The deferment agreement has been eliminated, and the amount from your agreement has been satisfied.
Q3: Am I still validated?	A3: YES. Elimination of the CWS Deferment Agreement does not affect your fall 2022 validation.
Q4: Will I have a hold on my student account?	A4: No. The amount from your deferment agreement has been satisfied.
Q5: Are you still going to deduct money from my paycheck?	A5: No. Starting September 15, you will begin getting your full paycheck (minus any taxes or other deductions) for all hours worked.
Q6: Can I do a new deferment agreement in the spring?	A6: No. The CWS Deferment Agreement has been eliminated. Beginning spring 2023, students will have to achieve validation using other available options (financial aid, payment plan, etc.).
